

At the center of David's teaching is the belief that being compassionate with others and ourselves is a gateway to genuine learning. His teaching draws from his experiences as a father, a musician and avid outdoorsman. Prior to teaching at Skyview, David received his B.A. in Elementary Education from Prescott College, where he obtained foundational knowledge in Expeditionary Learning and experiential education.

