

At the core of Mary's being is a scientist, an investigator of the natural world. Mary holds a B.S. in Elementary Education with an emphasis in Environmental Science. Prior to her association with Skyview School, Mary served as the Director of Willow Bend Environmental Center in Flagstaff, Arizona. In this capacity she designed and taught science curriculum to children, young adults, and teachers throughout the Northern Arizona.

