

Michelle Jennings has a BA in Community Studies with a minor in Education from the University of California, Santa Cruz. She received her K-8 Multiple Subject Teaching Credential from Chapman University in Monterey, California. Throughout her teaching career she has worked in the public and private school sectors, teaching Physical Education with an emphasis on cooperative learning and movement/dance. In the public school in California, she also taught 4th-8th grade, and most recently was the Program Coordinator at a private school for the gifted in Santa Cruz, California, which included coordinating the after school, summer and break programs, special events and celebrations, and Co-Directing the end of the year Drama Performances for K-6th grade. She brings with her a great love of children, a love for movement, the arts, and the sciences.

