I/we hereby certify that the information provided in this application is true and complete. We recognize that false or misleading statements can result in either my/our child's dismissal from Skyview School or my/our child being denied admission.

We have read and discussed the admissions material as well as the information presented to us during the Orientation to Skyview School program. We have also discussed, as a family, the educational philosophy of Skyview School as well as the expectations for each of us as contributing members of the Skyview School community, including academic expectations, volunteer participation, and community involvement. We understand that respect and responsibility for others, the natural world, and ourselves are our guiding principles.

Having read and discussed this material, we believe that Skyview School presents an excellent opportunity for involvement by our family and we want to continue with the registration process.
